

DECLARATION CONCERNING EU DIRECTIVE N:O 2002/95/EC, RESTRICTION ON HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES (ROHS-DIRECTIVE)

According to EU directive N:o 2002/95/EC the use of lead, mercury, cadmium, hexavalent chromium, polybrominated biphenyls and polybrominated diphenyl ethers (hereinafter Restricted Materials) shall be restricted or prohibited in electrical and electronic equipment.

Based on the declarations of our suppliers and taking into the consideration that we do not add Restricted Materials to the products in our manufacturing process, we are confident, that, if present at all, the levels of Restricted Materials are below the limits proposed as limits by the technical adaptation committee of the EU.

This declaration is applicable to the products in the enclosed Annex (hereinafter the Products).
